About Marie Diamond Transformation Essences

The Marie Diamond Essences will transform your vibration, the vibration of your home and office and the people living and working in them.

These Essences are created by a process of meditation and frequency activations. Marie Diamond has been using Essences in her Transformational work for the last 20 years and has created many lines of Essences.

Marie Diamond Essences go through a very specific and intense process that activates each essence with a quantum frequency. Using each of the Marie Diamond Energy Systems (Diamond Feng Shui, Diamond Dowsing, Inner Diamond) they are activated in an energetically pure space fully connected to the Quantum field.

Each Essence is activated with a specific vibration that will help you connect with a specific quality. Qualities such as Unconditional Love, Wisdom, Clarity, and Focus each hold a certain vibration. When using these Essences in your aura field and your environment, you will enhance these qualities in your life.

This line of Essences is connected with:

- Marie Diamond's book, 'The Transformation Codes'
- Diamond Feng Shui based on the 24 quantum principles
- Diamond Dowsing
- Inner Diamond Meditation based on the 24 quantum principles

How to Use the Transformation Essences

There are many ways to use the essences. They can be used individually or in combination.

The best way to begin is to look through the list below and decide which quality or qualities you would like more of in your life and choose the Essence that is activated with those qualities.

They can also be used in combination to enhance your Success, Health, Relationships and Spiritual Growth. There are 3 Essences that support each of these areas. Choose one area that you feel most in need of transforming and use the essences to enhance this particular area of your life.

For instance, if you feel you need more Success, use the essences Power/Empowerment, Joy/Celebration, Abundance/Magnificence to enhance every aspect of your Success. Each of these essences will support your success in some way.

To create a stronger connection with the universe, find your Personal Energy Number, based on your birthday, by visiting www.myenergynumber.com.

Other ways to find the Right Transformation Essence for You.

Along with determining what you need from the above survey, you can also dowse or muscle test to see which Essence you need.

Dowsing

If you are dowsing with either your dowsing rods or pendulum, connect with one of the Essences by looking at the word, color or bottle and ask, “Will taking this Essence support me ’; your dowsing rods or pendulum will respond ‘yes’ or ‘no’.

If you do not use dowsing rods or a pendulum, you can also muscle test yourself with this method:

Muscle Testing

Make a strong ring with your thumb and a finger of the non-dominant hand. Make another ring, interlocking with the first, with the thumb and a finger of the other hand, and then try to pull the second ring through the first at its weakest point, where the thumb and finger meet.

Alternatively, pinch the thumb and a finger of the second hand together as if forming a beak, and try to spread the thumb and finger of the first hand apart with them.

Ask the question again. If the thumb and finger do not come apart, it is a ‘yes’. If you are able to pull them apart, it is a ‘no’.

Following your Intuition

Using your intuition, you will feel drawn to a color or to the quality that the essence represents or with the bottles in front of you, be aware of which one you are drawn to.
